MARYVILLE

MISS ALMIRA CAROLINE BASSETT, M. A.

DEDICATION

TO

who entered Maryville College as a member of the Freshman Class twenty-five years ago, who was editor of the 1909 Chilbowean, and President of the Y. W. C. A., who later returned as an Instructor, and who for many years has given her utmost ability to her Alma Mater through her unselfishness and through her understanding sympathy by means of which she has directed many a Maryville student in an appreciation of true worth and useful living, we, the members of the Junior Class, gratefully dedicate this anniversary edition of the Chilbowean.

FOREWORD

FOR the past twenty-four years the Chilbowean has served as a memento of the passing years, as a valuable symbol of friendship and experience gained through college life. Now in the twenty-fifth year of its existence the Chilbowean has reached the silver anniversary mark, a mark of distinction, and a mark of honorable mention. During this quarter of a century Maryville has progressed in many different ways, and each year the annual has portrayed the advancement made. So in this anniversary edition we have striven to carry out in every manner possible the idea of twenty-five years of contrast, comparison and progress.

MRS. MARY McDERMID MINTON, M. A.

*"Oh, cut off
Untimely! when thy reason in its strength,
Ripened by years of toil and studious search,
And watch of Nature's silent lessons, taught
Thy hand to practice best the lenient art
To which thou gavest thy laborious days,
And, last, thy life."*

Coaches

HONAKER

THROWER

The success of Maryville's athletic teams is largely due to the excellent coaching by the men here pictured. For ten seasons Coach Honaker has skillfully directed the three major sports at Maryville. His teams are noted for their fighting spirit and clean sportsmanship and have to their credit many state, sectional, and conference championships.

Bob Thrower came to Maryville with Coach Honaker in 1921 and for the ensuing four years was an outstanding athlete; during which time he captained the powerful Highlander eleven of '23 and established a college record in the shot put, besides winning his letter in basketball. A comparison of the football lines and the track teams before and after Coach Bob has had them in his charge will prove his skill as a coach.

When Mr. Smith assumed the duties of coaching the tennis team, a great advance was made in that department of athletics. Four victories, one defeat, and two tie matches indeed made an impressive record.

Under the instruction of our student coaches, Coughlin and Watkins, our swimming and wrestling teams now rank with the best. Jack is to be commended for the good records established by his tank teams during the past seasons.

The fact that Maryville's wrestling team now holds the state championship testifies to the ability of Coach Watkins. "Farmer", by defeating Mayer of the Knoxville Y. M. C. A., is now holder of the Southern Championship in the one-hundred-fifty-five-pound class.

Here at the beginning of our athletic section we have pictured five reasons for the success of the Highlander teams in all branches of sports. Coaches, we are proud of you.

Highlanders

CAPT. STOREY

CASH

ATKINS

Under the able tutelage of Coaches Honaker and Thrower and the leadership of Captain Carl Storey Maryville completed another successful season of football. The season of 1930 found Maryville facing a hard schedule. Undaunted by the fact that Emory-Henry, Carson-Newman, Milligan, and Lenoir-Rhyne were boasting their strongest teams in years, the Highlanders ventured to meet such foes as Howard College and the Universities of Kentucky and Tennessee. With such a schedule as this Maryville may justly be proud of her five victories.

Twelve lettermen and more than a score of eager aspirants answered the initial call so that practice was begun and was in full swing one week before the other students began to arrive on the Hill. The boys worked hard and furiously during the hot summer-like weather in order to get into condition for the tilt with Mars Hill on the night of September 19.

The object of this game was accomplished in that the ability of the new men was tested and that the team was given an opportunity to work together as a unit. Credit is due Mars Hill for the pluck her team displayed in spite of the score which showed the odds to be 46-0 against them.

Highlanders

OVERLY

CALLAWAY, CAPT.-ELECT

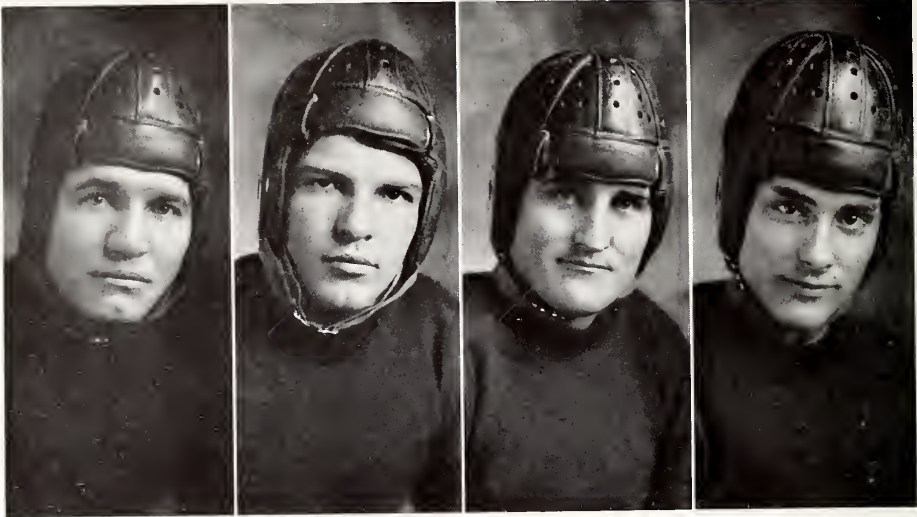

On the following Saturday the tables were reversed as Maryville was defeated 54-0 by the powerful "Volunteers" of Tennessee. Although outclassed in everything except team spirit, the Highlanders fought until the last whistle. McDonald's work at guard completely outshone anything Tennessee could offer.

In the third game Tennessee Wesleyan was defeated by the score 19-7. The game was even closer than the score would indicate since the Bulldogs entered the game with a good team that was fired by the desire to repeat their performance of '28 when they defeated Maryville. Overly, who had been nursing an injured ankle, returned to the play and with McDonald and Watkins played havoc with many of the Bulldogs' tricks. Maryville's most effective attack was through the air, two of Callaway's passes being caught by Woodard for touchdowns. White and Rule also exhibited a marked ability to receive passes.

Saturday afternoon, October 11, found the Orange and Garnet team on Stoll Field at Lexington in array for a contest with the strongest Wild Cat team Kentucky had produced in a good many years. Led by the superb "Shipwreck" Kelly, Kentucky amassed a total of 57 points while holding Maryville scoreless. The Wild Cats' opinion of the Highlanders is voiced by the University's publication as follows:

Highlanders

GILLESPIE

RULE

"Maryville athletic teams, known as 'Highlanders', are recognized for their 'fight.' They frequently play larger schools, but this never means they are to quit. The bigger they are the harder the Highlanders fight. That is their creed."

On the night of October 17, Maryville lost a heartbreaking game to Emory-Henry by a score of 7-6. Registering three times as many first downs as the Wasps, and outclassing them in the other departments as well, it seems too bitter that the Highlanders should lose. Yet a break in the form of a blocked kick and a subsequent run of thirty-five yards for a touchdown and an extra point by Cathers offset a perfect pass from Smith to White for a touchdown in the second quarter.

With this defeat still bitter in their minds the Highlanders journeyed to Birmingham to play the Howard College Bears. Although weakened by injuries, the Scotties had more than held their own for three quarters with this strong contender for the S. I. A. A. Championship when the wide awake "Sleepy" White intercepted a lateral pass and winged his way sixty-five yards for a touchdown. Don Wilson, always a bulwark in the Maryville line, was soon forced to leave the game on account of an injured knee. The Bears by two brilliant drives in the last quarter crossed the Maryville goal line twice and the Scotties were left to drink the bitter dregs of a 14-6 defeat.

In the contest with Carson-Newman at Jefferson City the Highlanders broke into the win-column by registering a 14-0 victory. The defensive work of Proffitt, Tolliver, and Ferguson in the line and the fierce tackling of Gillespie in the backfield were outstanding.

Led by Floyd Wilson, who scored three touchdowns, the Highlanders defeated the Milligan Buffaloes 39-0. The all-round play of Atkins, Teffeteller, Chandler, Richardson, and Quinlan make the prospects for a good line in 1931 very promising. Benn's proof that he could direct the team in a first-class manner was also encouraging.

During the first few minutes of the game with Lenoir-Rhyne it looked as if Maryville would close the season with a defeat. After being scored on in the first three minutes Maryville received the kick-off and began a sixty-yard march down the field for a touchdown. A moment later on a triple pass play the Highlanders made a seventy-three-yard run behind perfect interference for a touchdown. Cash and Watkins rose to new heights in this contest with their fellow North Carolinians. McDonald, Smith, and Storey brought additional honors to themselves by doing more than their share in gaining this 13-7 victory for their Alma Mater.

Thus the season closed with Maryville victorious in every conference game and with four men, McDonald, Overly, Wilson, and Callaway winning places on the All Smoky Mountain team.

Carl Storey, although handicapped by an injured knee during a large part of the season, was a leader in every respect, being always the foremost in attack and the most courageous in defense. With Captain Storey and McDonald at the guard position Maryville had the strongest pair of guards in her history. McDonald is a football man of highest caliber and would rank with the best in any conference in the country.

At the sides of these peerless guards played three men equal in valor. For a total of nine seasons these men have been powerful cogs in the Highlander machine. Farmer Watkins for three years has held the center position and was largely responsible for the good record of the line during those seasons.

Just as essential as cash and profit are to the life of any business, so were Cash and Proffitt to the life of our line. Proffitt, a veteran of three years service, returned to us this fall and throughout the season has proved that it was profitable to the team for him to be at one tackle position. It has not taken all of the two years Cash has been in Maryville for us to realize that when an opposing attack must be stopped or a few yards were needed we could always depend on him. Tom's place will be hard to fill next year.

Smith not only called the plays for the Highlanders but was also there to do his share in the other departments of the game. Will we ever forget that pass he threw to White which should have won the Emory-Henry game? It can be said that "Smitty" always did his part and did it well.

As these six men leave us, we look to Wilson, Teffeteller, Ferguson, Tolliver, Overly, and Benn with confidence that they will fill these vacancies and hold the colors of Maryville high during the season of 1931.

DAVIS, CAPTAIN

COOPER

WOODARD

Even before football had ceased to occupy the majority of Coach Honaker's time, many aspiring basketballers had begun limbering their muscles and training their eyes on the basket in preparation for the coming season. Thus, much was accomplished before the first official call for basketball men was sounded.

Things began to happen thick and fast when Coach Honaker took charge and began to mould the team into shape. With only three letter-men to serve as a nucleus, it seemed quite a task to build a team whose record would compare favorably with those hung up by the Highlanders in previous seasons.

In the initial encounter the showing was encouraging as the team amassed forty points to the Alumni's twenty-two. The performance of new men gave promise of good material.

The second game was won from the famous team of Hack and Mack by the score of twenty-seven to twenty-one, Davis and White accounting for the majority of the points.

The Scotties displayed considerable power in the first game after the Christmas season by defeating the Knoxville Pioneers, Industrial Champions of East Tennessee, thirty-four to thirty.

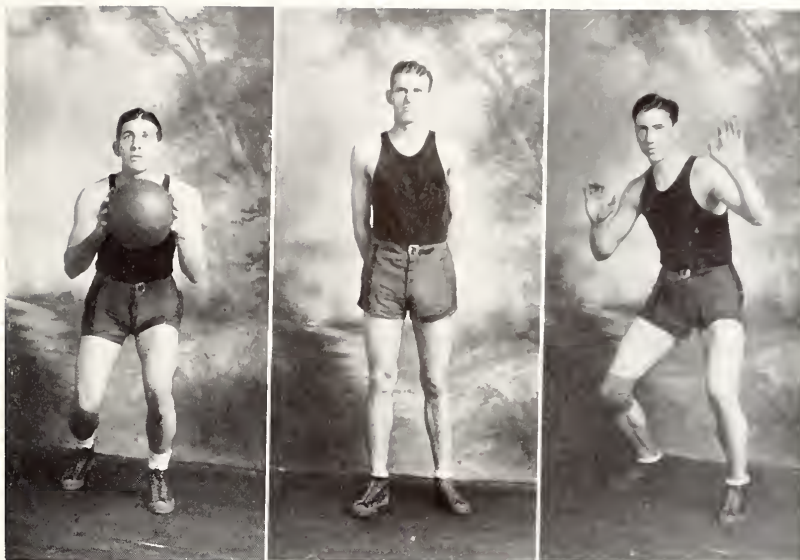

Much credit is due the team for the showing they made in Chattanooga on the first road trip of the season when they held the brilliant Tepcos to a thirty to thirty-five score.

The following night the Highlanders dropped a game to Tennessee Wesleyan by a twenty-four to twenty-seven count.

Next, L. M. U. was defeated in an interesting game on our home court, forty-six to thirty, White being responsible for eighteen points.

The Kansas Tornadoes blew into town and passed out with a forty-four to twenty-five defeat recorded against them.

The week following, Tennessee Wesleyan made the mistake of giving Maryville a return game and were forced to drink the dregs of a forty-three to seventeen defeat.

WILSON

NEE

The Highlanders in the next three games were defeated by Tennessee, L. M. U., and Carson-Newman on foreign courts.

Returning to the home court the Scotties defeated Milligan thirty-one to twenty-six in one of the finest exhibitions of basketball ability seen in several years.

The next game was a goal shooting festival, featuring Davis, White, Cooper, Woodard, and Nee, in which the Knoxville Y. M. C. A. took the lower end of a fifty-six to fifteen score.

After being led at the half eighteen to fifteen, the Tepcos came from behind to hand Maryville a fifty to twenty-nine defeat, the only one suffered on the home court this season.

In the next game the tables were reversed and Maryville won a fifty-eight to thirty-three decision over King College.

Following the next game, the Fighting Eagles of Carson-Newman went back to Jefferson City with a forty to twenty defeat ringing bitterly in their ears. Such a fast game as this is seldom seen.

The following two games were lost by a total of three points. The first game went to the Knoxville Y. M. C. A. forty to forty-one. With the loss of the next game, thirty-five to thirty-seven, Maryville was eliminated from the Smoky Mountain Conference Tournament.

Throughout the season only two teams were met which Maryville did not defeat; the powerful Tepcos and the University of Tennessee with whom a return game could not be arranged.

Maryville loses a valuable player in Captain Davis, but with the return of five lettermen a good team for the season of 1931-1932 is assured.

Baseball Squad

CAPTAIN-ELECT WATKINS, McCULLOCH, LEWIS, MANAGER PARTEE.
Front Row: BRADSHAW, G. BENN, STIDHAM, TEFFETELLER, BOWMAN, PARK, CAPTAIN BLAZER, T. WEST, G. WHITE.

Maryville upheld the record of being the best baseball team in the state by winning twenty-one victories in a season of twenty-five games. Few teams in the country can show as good a record as was produced by the Highlanders in the season of 1930. The credit for such records as have been produced by Maryville in the pursuit of our national pastime during previous seasons is largely due to the ability of Coach Honaker as an athletic director.

The pitching staff composed of Stidham, Park, and Captain Blazer was of unusual quality, a goodly percentage of our victories being due to their efforts. White, Benn, West, and Woodard on the infield, with Bowman and Teffeteller behind the plate, supported the mound in a fashion seldom seen in college circles. The infield in turn was backed by a trio of fast, hard-hitting outfielders in Watkins, Hurst, and Smith.

A large factor in the team's success was the ability of the boys to hit the ball. Woodard led the team with the phenomenal record of .517, a large number of his hits being for extra bases. Woodard was followed by Blazer, Smith, and Captain-Elect Watkins, all of whom hit well above .350, which is an enviable mark in any league.

The season opened victoriously with a win over Michigan State and so continued except for setbacks at the hands of Tennessee, Emory-Henry and East Tennessee Teachers' College. These defeats were more than balanced by one or more decisive victories over the same schools at other times during the season.

Track Squad

The track team finished a very successful season, being victorious in two of the three meets. After meeting defeat at the hands of Tennessee Volunteers the Highlanders journeyed to L. M. U. where they won a decisive victory. The following week the University of Chattanooga came to Maryville to meet the Highlanders on their home track. When the last runner had crossed the tape, it was found that Maryville had won by an overwhelming score and that a college record had been broken by Woodard, who moved the mark in the javelin throw up to 161 feet, 4 inches. Much credit for this successful season is due to the efficient manner in which Coach Thrower and Manager Sprouse handled the squad.

The squad loses only two men through graduation, but what men they are! Captain Taggart and Maurice Carper were the chief point winners throughout the season. Taggart in four years of competition has never lost in the quarter mile run and very seldom has met his superior in the broad jump, the hundred, and the two hundred twenty yard dashes. For the past two seasons Carper has been our main-spring in the half mile and weight events.

Maryville is expecting the remaining members of the squad to do better than their best in order to counteract the loss of these men and to carry the Orange and Garnet through another successful season.

The Music Department of Maryville College has progressed steadily each year under the leadership of Miss Laura B. Hale who gives advanced instruction in piano and harmony. She is assisted by Mrs. Ethel Adkins McCall in the department of piano who instructs beginning piano students and also teaches a course in the history of music.

The department of vocal instruction is under the direction of Miss Frances Henry who, besides giving individual lessons, directs the Vesper Choir, the Men's Glee Club, and the Women's Glee Club.

The department of violin is headed by Miss Mildred Butcher who since her advent to Maryville College has organized and directed a competent and talented orchestra composed of twenty-five pieces. The College Band is directed by Miss Butcher and has made unusual progress this year. In addition to these two organizations Miss Butcher has many students in violin.

The three graduates in the department of piano this year are Miss Mildred MacKenzie, Miss Margaret Melody, and Miss Mildred McMurray.

Theta Epsilon

From the time that Theta was organized in 1894 until the present, the "Happy Sisters" have been working and playing together, developing leaders and personalities, and forming valuable, lasting friendships. Her success is due to the unfailing work of the loyal members and officers whose talent, ingenuity, and four-square characters make Theta a society of which we may be deservedly proud.

The annual mid-winter, "The Big Pond", was one of the best plays presented on the Hill this year.

The members of foregoing years have built a rich heritage of success and achievement which today makes up the Theta Spirit of living helpfully and happily.

 ANDREW ALEXANDER, FLOYD WATERS, HARRY MATHIAS, CLARENCE CURTIS, JESSE WILLIS.

Alpha Sigma

The Alpha Sigma Literary Society has been a leading organization on the Hill for many years, and this year has been no exception. At the beginning of every year Alpha Sigma always attracts many new students who never regret that they join this society. The fellowship, social relations, spirit of cooperation, and leadership that are derived from membership in Alpha Sigma play a predominant part in the college life of every society member.

In all activities, academic, scholastic, athletic, and social, Alpha Sigma has its leaders who are well qualified in their attainments. There is a sense of true sportsmanship that is evident at all times and which identifies Alpha Sigma men.

The Alpha Sigma mid-winter, "The Crisis", was one of the outstanding presentations of the year and was made possible through the willingness and ability of the cast and various committees in their efforts and desires to put on a winning play.

Alpha Sigma will continue to carry on its fine work in every department of college activities through the quality of men who always select Alpha Sigma as their medium of friendship, workmanship, and true relationship.

 MARIE SCHROELUKE.

Bainonian

For fifty-six years the Bainonian Literary Society has been a controlling factor on College Hill. Girls who are Bainonians are earnest in their endeavors, enduring in their friendships, genuine in their actions, whole-hearted in their activities, and generous in their gifts.

Bainonians are active in every department on the Hill. Four of the five Y. W. C. A. officers are Bainonians; the feminine leads in two of the College player productions were Bainonians; a Bainonian made the highest record in scholarship this year; a Bainonian won the T. T. Alexander Prize in Oratory this year; the editor of the Highland Echo is a Bainonian; some of the best all-round women athletes of the college are Bainonians. These and many more are the activities in which Bainonians are predominant.

Friendship, leadership, genuineness, and democracy are the qualities that are to be found in Bainonian.

"Our strong bond can ne'er be broken."

Athenian

Athenian, the oldest society on the Hill, is a society of men who are loyal, true to themselves and to their friends, and whose powers of leadership and ability cannot be over-estimated.

The activities of the members of Athenian are varied and numerous, and whatever is attempted is work well done and complete. One of the most outstanding accomplishments of the society is the winning of the Theta Alpha Phi cup for producing the best mid-winter play of the year. "Shavings" was a masterpiece.

Athenian has the distinction of having as one of its members, the College Orator, who competed against many aspirants for the honor, who also won the Bates Oratorical Contest.

Through individual participation and united action of its members Athenian has maintained a standard of achievement of which it may well be proud.

Theta Alpha Phi Winner

"SHAVINGS"

The Athenian Literary Society has the distinction of winning this year the Theta Alpha Phi loving cup which is given to the society that presents the best play during the scholastic year.

The committee composed of Mrs. Morton, Mrs. Traylor, and Dr. Hunter selected the play from the standpoint of selection as to its literary merit; characterization with regard to portrayal of roles; and stage management or presentation.

The play, "Shavings", by Joseph C. Lincoln is the play that won the cup for Athenian. Feminine parts were taken by members of the Bainonian Literary Society who did their share in helping Athenian gain this distinction. If the society wins the cup three years in succession it becomes a permanent possession of the society.

The Y. M. C. A. began its year last fall with the usual joint retreat of the Young Men's and Young Women's Associations at Kinzel Springs on the edge of the Great Smoky Mountains. There the officers and cabinets of the two organizations spent two days of fellowship and planning for the opening college year. Then all hurried back to the Campus to welcome the incoming freshmen and aid them in any way possible to become acquainted and adjusted to college life at Maryville. For this purpose also the annual "M" Handbook had already been edited and sent out during the summer to all new students.

As is well known, the purpose of the Young Men's Christian Association is Physical, Mental, and Spiritual development of the man; accordingly, the year's program has included those three phases of the work. The "Y" has sponsored inter-class sports of all kinds, including football, basketball, track, and baseball—awarding a cup to the class making the highest pointage in all. A fall cross-country run was a feature during the early part of the year also, the winners receiving trophies. A circus, mountain hike, and a fellowship banquet with the University of Tennessee men, have been further evidences of the Y. M. C. A. on the campus.

The regular weekly Sunday afternoon meetings have been of an open forum discussion nature part of the time, and upon other occasions interesting outside speakers have been procured. Thus, through the sponsorship of a well-proportioned program of athletics, religious meetings, and fellowship groups, the organization has sincerely tried to bring about a better Christian life among the students.

WE women of Maryville College UNITE together, one for all and all for one IN working and playing in A well-rounded life with the DESIRE to educate ourselves and TO help others to REALIZE the best there is mentally, physically, and spiritually in a life that is FULL of AND overflowing with a CREATIVE power and a LIFE THROUGH which others may obtain A GROWING KNOWLEDGE OF the attributes that portray GOD. WE do and shall DETERMINE TO MAKE our lives focus so completely on Christ that THIS Christian LIFE may not only be attractive but POSSIBLE FOR those around us and indirectly for ALL PEOPLE. IN endeavoring to accomplish THIS TASK, this goal that WE have set for ourselves, we SEEK TO UNDERSTAND the beliefs of others concerning JESUS AND TO make Him so real in our lives that others will FOLLOW HIM.
